TRADES FOR PRISONERS.

There is a movement on foot in Germany to teach youthful prisoners to make useful objects. The Berlin Chamber of Commerce objects to this, saying that the prisoners should be taught to make useful objects, not only examination of his capabilities, but a certificate of good conduct from the police. This last the Chamber is unwilling to dispense with for the sake of trade reputation in general. It suggests that what should be taught to young prisoners is the making of useful articles.

HONGKONG AT WEMBLEY.—Here is another picture taken in the Hongkong section of the British Empire Exhibition. Mr. T. Petrie is seen standing with bag in hand, and the other gentleman with him is Mr. George Duncan.

MANCHU HAUNT PALACE.—The Manchu ladies have lost much of their former position in Peking, but they continue to pay frequent visits to the Forbidden City, the scene of their old-time triumphs. These ladies, some of the few Manchus who have not lost their wealth in the Revolution, were snapped by R. M. Vanderburgh, head of the Mission Photo Bureau, during a visit to Peking recently. The Chinese authorities have recently forbidden the taking of photographs in the Forbidden City, and this picture was taken while several guards were bearing down on the photographer.

BATTLING SIKI FINISHED.—Battling Siki may never fight again. The picturesque Senegalese conqueror of Georges Carpentier is in worse shape to-day than he was when Mike McTigue got through with him. A motor ride and then a smashup have sent him to hospital in Omaha with five shattered ribs and a bruised shoulder.

NOTED INDIAN POET.

Arrival in Hongkong This Morning.

Dr. Rabindranath Tagore, the noted Indian poet and philosopher, arrived in Hongkong from the North this morning, and was met by a number of his admirers. This evening the Indian community is presenting him with an address at a meeting to be held in Prince's Building. Our photograph of the poet was taken aboard ship on his arrival at Shanghai from here some time ago.

FATAL JOY-RIDE.

ARREST OF CHAUFFEUR.

Mr. M. A. Razack's chauffeur, who absconded after the fatal joy-ride which he indulged in with his friends early yesterday morning, was arrested by the Police last night whilst, it is said, making preparations for an early exit from the Colony.

As reported in yesterday's Telegraph, one Chinese was killed and five others injured when a car belonging to Mr. Razack crashed into the railings of a bridge at Deep Water Bay and dropped into the stream. The chauffeur was the only one to escape from the accident with only a few minor injuries. He had been

TWO-MINUTE TALKS A Daily Tonic By ROBERT POWER

OLD ESTABLISHED.

"Established in the Year 1824" read on the sign over the door. A century is a long time to pass over the head of a business organization. What changes must have taken place during this hundred years! The son of the founder would be grown to manhood and see himself descending the hill of life while other generations held the reins of affairs. For I found upon inquiry that five generations had held this "old established" business.

But age is not of necessity, prosperity. For my informant, ready to talk, said with a shake of his head: "This business isn't what it was in the old man's time. Ah! When Mr. Robert—Mr. Robert Number Three, as we called him—was alive the place was humming with business. But now!" and a mournful shake of the head gave an impression of a blight upon the "old established" business.

I could not help musing over this. I wondered what had happened to this business now in its fifth generation. Was it some personal weakness, extravagance, or temperamental instability of Robert V. which had caused the decline? I know of nothing more melancholy than the slow decay of an "old established" business. The causes may be various, but the greatest tragedy of all is when some descendant of a line of hard-working and successful business men comes into "his own" and gradually wrecks his patrimony.

There are "old established" businesses which are the pride of commercial life. Founded upon integrity and industry they have been extended by zeal and vision. Our business life is full of such illustrations, and they do indeed give life to the saying, "The Romance of Commerce." For what can be more inspiring than the old-established business which is still flourishing like the noble oak, throwing out fresh branches and developing new activities.

You will find that the guiding spirit of such business houses is Honesty. I am old-fashioned enough to believe that the end-justifies-the-means in Commerce are laid upon the sure foundation of Straight Dealing. Sharp practice may bring temporary advantages; knavish tricks may be commended as "smart by the shallow," but in time the dishonesty is detected and the business gets a bad name. It is far easier to win a reputation for being "too smart" than to lose it. Many a business has never become "old established" because it has been killed by too much "cleverness."

An "old-established" business is something more than a mere concern devoted to commerce. It is an organization with traditions. A business that makes nothing but money is a poor kind of business, declared Henry Ford. "Old established" is a proud title to put up on the sign. It shows endurance, for the years must have brought vicissitudes, and if the spirit of honesty and enterprise be happily combined, then it is no fault of the owners if Success does not continue to grow hard work.

"THE SILVER WOLF."

STRIKING PRODUCTION BY THE BOY SCOUTS.

Thanks to the enterprise of our local Scouts, Hongkong boys can now claim an illustrated monthly magazine of unusual interest, contributed to by local supporters who, if we may judge by the excellent result that is before us, have happily achieved the difficult task of combining instruction and amusement in a way that cannot fail to appeal to the juvenile mind.

The current issue of The Silver Wolf, the first of a new and enlarged series, will appeal alike to boys who are Scouts and boys who are not. The cover design is both striking and artistic. The central figure is by Major Gandy and features what might be termed the spirit of the Boy Scout movement, an enthusiastic young Scout holding aloft an unfurled Union Jack. In the background is an excellent view of the Harbour and Peak. The border design and title lettering is by Mr. M. F. Baptista, well-known in amateur art circles of the Colony for work of exceptional merit.

The contents are varied and uniformly interesting, and the choice of authors reflects the sound judgment of the editor. Mr. Claxton explains to us the recent Transit of Mercury. Professor Middleton Smith tells us in simple language all about the engine of a motor car and many who read it will understand for the first time just what makes the wheels go round. There is an excellently written article on aeroplanes by an expert who modestly cloaks his identity under the nom-de-plume of "The Bird of Freedom." Mr. Champkin, the Acting Commissioner, writes amusingly about "Fingers and Things" and "Climbing on the Roof of the World" and also contributes a vividly narrated story of simple heroism concerning one "Billy Speke, Midshipman R. M. S. Kent, who lost his leg and his life" at the capture of Chandernagor in 1757.

Our old friend, Mr. Salisbury of "The Quaints," proves to be quite as humorous with the pen as with cap and bells, and tells the Scouts how to obtain the Entertainer Badge. Mr. White, the District Scoutmaster, shows poetic talent of no mean order in his "Hiawatha" verses, and a more prosaic though equally commendable skill in the making of Hunter's Stew, Fried Bacon, Porridge and other camp delicacies, as explained in his Cookery Test Article. Mr. Montargis gives us an insight into the life of a French cavalryman in the deserts of Northern Africa and "Ex Sapper" tells us all about the meaning and significance of distinguished marks and badges worn by soldiers in the Cantonese Armies.

H. B. M. writes an instructive article on woodwork as taught in the schools of Sweden and elsewhere. Mr. Kirk proves how easy it is to estimate areas when you know a few simple rules and Mr. Williams explains the use of carpentry tools. We recognise an old friend in "O.E." whose amusing rhymes on "Badges" are in his usual happy vein. Scout T. L. Shea relates the adventures of his Troop trekking round the Island at Easter and the well-written Troop and Pack Notes by the Scoutmasters and Cubmasters are a revelation of the amazing energy of all these happy young workers, campers, sailors, tinkers, tailors, hikers and helpers that we know as Boy Scouts.

The Silver Wolf has shown us more than anything else that the Boy Scouts Association of Hongkong is a healthy and vigorous institution, and as we gather from the Commissioner's Notes, that, apart from the boys and their instructors, there are only seven members of the Association in Hongkong, we cordially endorse his appeal for 693 more members to make up the round number that will enable the Association to extend its useful activities in the directions indicated.

London, June 30.

In the House of Commons, questioned regarding the reported statement by Kurakhan, the Soviet envoy to China, promising Russian support for any steps by China to abolish the special treaty rights of Britain and other Powers, Mr. MacDonald said that it had not been considered necessary to take notice of this. The attitude of the Government in support of the existing treaty rights in China remained unchanged.

CUPID AND CAMPASPE

Cupid and my Campaspe played

At cards for kisses; Cupid paid:

He stakes his quiver, bow and arrows,

His mothers doves, and teams of sparrows.

Loves them too; then down he throws

The coral of his lippe, the rose

Growing on a cheek (but none knows how)

With these, the crystal of his brow,

And then the dimple of his chinne:

All these did my Campaspe winne.

At last he set her both his eyes.

She won, and Cupid blind had gone.

O Love! has she done this to thee?

Wouldst thou have done this to me?

HONGKONG, 1st July, 1924.

Although bad luck has dogged Squadron-Leader MacLaren and his companions in their flight from Calshot to Rangoon, and there has been considerable delay, the enthusiasm they have aroused here is considerable. It only needed to be one of the party who had the privilege to be at the spot where the gallant aviators alighted, to realise what it means to British hearts to be able to welcome these flying-mercenaries from the Old Country to a British Colony. The cheers whorled they were mooring their machine to its buoy, and the cheers that greeted them on arrival at Hongkong, the hearty manner in which they were marched off to sample the hospitality of the premier British club in the place were all in keeping with the spirit of pride in the achievements of one's own countrymen. This enthusiasm has, if anything, been enhanced by the knowledge that they are practically racing against time and misfortune, and still have the greater and more arduous part of their journey complete, with only one machine to depend upon. Our welcome has had nothing spectacular about it, but no such demonstration necessary to assure the aviators of the spirit of goodwill animating every Briton in the world who reads of the progress their flight is making from time to time.

According to news from Canton, the strike habit is becoming more and more pronounced in that city. Workers in various industries are either already "out" or are contemplating an early stoppage, their demand, as usual, being more wages and fewer hours. That the attempts to obtain increased pay in some cases is justified, we have no doubt, for in some callings the workman in Canton is notoriously under-paid. But it would appear that the men concerned are, in some instances, not inclined to negotiate on the subject—they make an extortionate demand, with a flat intimation that if it is not conceded, then a strike will ensue. We have seen the same spirit in evidence here in Hongkong, and it is a development that is to be regretted. By all means give the labourer a wage which will keep him in decent conditions of life, and, where hours are excessive, reduce them. But in all these cases there are difficult and ticklish economic issues involved, which need careful handling. The present tendency for wages of Chinese labour to increase is inevitable. At present we are in a transition stage in this regard, but the gradual rise is apparent. By degrees, we shall have to adjust ourselves to new standards; we only wish, however, that there was the same eagerness on the part of the worker to give due service for his wage as there is for more pay and fewer hours.

In the present state of affairs on the South China waterways it is gratifying to see that a Chinese organisation is taking in hand the question of giving adequate protection against pirates to the tow-boats plying between Canton and Kongsmoon. As indicated in our Kongsmoon letter yesterday, the See Yap Shipping Convoy Bureau has been called into being for this specific purpose and it has mapped out a big scheme, which includes the purchasing and arming of a number of special launches which are to work under the control of the Bureau in conveying work. The first three of these are due to commence operations to-morrow. The added protection given by these "boats will no doubt be greatly appreciated by the interstate traders with trouble from pirates, and their work should materially lessen the dangers therefrom. If the Chinese authorities responsible for policing the waterways were performing their duties as they should, there would be no necessity either for this organisation or for the convoy system now being worked from Hongkong. The fact that these arrangements are necessary only serves to show that the exercise of authority in these areas has broken down. That fact is now being recognised by the Chinese themselves, witness the inauguration of this new Bureau. More and more are the Chinese merchant classes taking upon themselves responsibilities which others should discharge but do not.

SINCLAIR LEWIS NOVEL
PICTURISED.

The announcement of the World Theatre management that "Main Street," a screen adaptation — of Sinclair Lewis' novel describing the small town, will be shown for four days beginning to-morrow will be hailed by all motion picture enthusiasts as an event out of the ordinary run of things. This because of the discussion pro and con awakened by the story, which was the most widely discussed in the history of the literary world during the past few years.

Florence Vidor and Monte Blue have the featured parts, the former as Carol Kennicott, the young girl burning with new ideas and the desire to make Gopher Prairie adopt them, and the latter as Dr. Kennicott, her husband. The picture is said to follow the book with fidelity.

Briefly, the story centres about Carol, about whom tongues begin to wag in connection with her friendship for Erik, Valborg, a young dreamer, the only person in the town sympathizing with Carol. She gets her way mindless of the gossip, trying to make the town advanced and now-fangled.

Old Valborg, Erik's father, resents the intimacy between his son and Carol, whom he blames for keeping away from the farm. At last the doctor, in his effort to save Carol from a bad reputation, tells her to marry him, and she

A STRIKE FAVOURED.

A circular issued yesterday afternoon by the Moulders' Guild gave notice of their intention to strike this morning in accordance with a decision reached at a meeting of the men and their officials on Sunday evening. There was a scene of considerable disorder before the officials finally consented to yield to the men's demand, and the announcement of a strike this morning came as the result.

Yesterday afternoon officials of the Guild called on the Secretary for Chinese Affairs after the issuing of the notice.

News to hand from Canton says that, according to a report from Sheklung, a large party of Hunanese forces have gone over to General Lum Fu, one of the Commanders of General Chan King-ming. Their action is said to be due to lack of pay and provisions. Some of the officers have returned to Canton. Another report states that Dr. Sun Yat-sen's forces all along the east front are showing an increasing disinclination to fight.

There is another strike of bricklayers and building labourers in Canton. A demand for increased pay (the fifth in three years) has been refused.

A formal communication has been addressed to the Macao Government requesting the arrest of the crew of the gunboat Kwongtai, which recently mutinied and carried out piratical attacks, should any of them visit the Colony.

DEMOCRATS STILL UNDECIDED ON CANDIDATE.

New York, June 30:
Almost immediately on assembling, the Democratic Convention started the roll-call of States in the first ballot for the Presidential nominee. The official figures of the first ballot were: Mr. McAdoo, 431½; Governor Smith, 240½. No candidate received the necessary two-thirds majority. The remainder of the votes were scattered among eighteen other candidates.—
Reuter's American Service.

Mr. McAdoo and Governor Smith picked up additional votes in the next few ballots, but not enough to indicate any general abandonment of their "favourite sons" by the delegates. Mr. McAdoo in the fifth ballot secured 443 and Governor Smith 261. Louisiana cast its entire twenty votes in favour of the ex-Ambassador, Mr. Davis, in the seventh ballot.—Reuter's American Service.

Adoo had 449 and Governor Smith 278. Mr. Davis secured 63½, though he started with a few West-Virginian votes only. The Convention has now gone into recess.—Reuter's American Service.

SECRET ARMING AGAIN REPUDIATED.

SECRET ARMSING REARMING
The German Ambassador has presented to M. Herriot the German Reply to the Allied Note on military control.
Paris, June 30.
Berlin, June 30.

The German Reply declares that the Germans repudiate the mere idea of war. They unanimously repudiate secret armings, as it is impossible, useless and dangerous. The Government has thoroughly carried out the disarmament of certain political organizations, and the athletic exercise of German youths were not connected with military preparations of Germany. No experienced military officer could be of the opinion that Germany is in a position to cause an armed conflict in Europe because she was in a condition of helplessness unparalleled in the history of nations. The Reply suggests that fear of the danger to European peace were due to the fact that the idea of general disarmament had not made its way into the consciences among the other nations.

Terrible Scenes in Wrecked Towns.

NIGHTMARE-LIKE CONDITIONS.

Cleveland, June 30.

Hitherto the known casualties in Lorain, Sandusky and Cleveland total seventy-two dead and many hundreds injured.

Six hundred soldiers are patrolling the streets of Lorain, which after the tornado resembles a war stricken town after a bombardment. The military have established strict control, and have ordered all who are on business to keep off the streets; also calling upon many citizens to clear up the wreckage.

There are many miraculous escapes from death. A woman who was blown from her bed through a window fifty feet into a yard, and was uninjured except for a broken shoulder. The Central High School has been transformed into a mortuary, surrounded by grief-stricken families. There are very pitiful scenes in the classrooms, filled with dead, including a number of children.

BRITISH PREMIER STANDS FIRM.

London, June 30.
 Regret at the attitude of the Egyptian Government and Parliament over the question of the Sudan was expressed by Mr. Ramsay MacDonald in the House of Commons. The Premier said the statements in the Egyptian Parliament and the action taken to create trouble in the Sudan could only be explained as an attempt to force his (Mr. MacDonald's) hand and deprive Zaglul Pasha of liberty in negotiation. In view of what had happened; it was necessary for him to make it clear to all concerned that he did not believe the House of Commons would accept any arrangement which would break up provinces to the Sudan—(Cheers)—or jeopardise the present Administration in the development thereof. He still trusted that those responsible for the Government of both countries would refuse to countenance impossible demands which would destroy the prospect of settlement. —Reuter.

Calro, June 30.
The Chamber unanimous

passed a resolution thanking the King for refusing to accept Zaglul Pasha's resignation. It understood that Zaglul Pasha, conforming to King Fuad's wishes, will not resign the Premiership. This decision was reached after a night-long meeting, where, apparently, the view was taken that the Premier's resignation was inadvisable in the present critical situation.

LEBRON'S CABINET

SIDELINES OF SWARAJ.

HOMAGE TO MURDERER REJECTED.
Ahmedabad, June 30.
The resolution with reference to the murderer Copinathsaheb, came up for discussion by the All-India Congress Committee, which, on the motion by Mr. Gandhi, passed a resolution regretting the murder of Mr. Day and condemning all political murders, as inconsistent with non-violent non-co-operation, and as retarding the progress towards Swaraj.

Mr. Das moved an amendment urging the adoption of the resolution passed on June 3, but the amendment was rejected, by 78 to 70 votes, and Mr. Gandhi's resolution was carried. —Reuter.

[A Calcutta message of June 3 stated that the Bengal Provincial Conference, consisting of a representative for Bengal and members of the Indian National Congress, sitting at Sarajanganj, passed a resolution rendering homage to Gopinathasha, who was hanged for murdering Mr. Ernest Day, a prominent Calcutta merchant in January last. The speakers urged that he aimed at riddling the country of its enemies, so that while condemning his action they admired its object. Mr. Das voted in favour of the motion.]

U.S. OIL SCANDAL

INDICTMENTS AGAINST ACCUSED.

Washington, June 30.

The Grand Jury has returned criminal indictments in the cases of ex-Secretary Fall, Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Doheny, whom the Government is prosecuting in connection with the oil lease scandals. Mr. Doheny, Junior, has also been indicted on all four charges of conspiring to defraud, while Mr. Fall is charged with accepting a bribe of a hundred-thousand dollars for using official influence on behalf of Mr. Doheny in connection with the California leases. The two Dohenys are charged with bribing him to take in unlawful action.—Reuter's American Service.

POWER CONFERENCE.

OPENED AT WEMBLEY.

London, June 30.

Thirty-nine countries, including Ceylon, China, the Dutch East Indies, Holland, India and Japan, are represented at the first World Power Conference at Wembley which is to last a fortnight. It is presided over by the Earl of Dorset and visiting experts will enlighten their fellow-delegates on the potential resources of each country in hydro-electric power, oil, minerals and other scientific questions. The Conference will discuss the establishment of a World Bureau. The Prince of Wales made a speech at the opening of the Conference, to which Dr. Kamo replied on behalf of Japan.

—Reuter.

TEA DUTIES.

FOREIGN PREFERENCE IMPOSSIBLE.

London, June 30.

In the House of Commons, in the Committee stage on the Finance Bill, Mr. Horbert Spencer moved an amendment to apply the Imperial Preference rates on tea to China and Dutch Indian tea on the ground that China and Holland treated Britain best with regard to tariffs of all countries of the world.

Mr. Philip Snowden replied. He sympathized with the amendment, but regretted that he was unable to accept it for financial reasons.

The amendment was withdrawn. Reuter.

THE BURDEN OF INDIGESTION.

Here are the facts about a real remedy for indigestion—and weakness of the vital organs—that burden which makes life a misery for so many. The remedy is Bisurated Magnesia, a harmless yet effective compound which since its inception, has received the written endorsement of thousands of grateful people in all parts of the world as well as the recommendation of doctors,
nurses and hospitals. Bisurated Magnesia stops stomach pain instantly by removing its cause, it is quite inexpensive, and either tablet or powder form can be obtained from any chemist. It is the one sure, safe and effective remedy for those who suffer from indigestion, and stomach weakness, but when buying care should be taken to see that it is "Bisurated" Magnesia, for nothing else will do. The oval "BISMAU" trademark appears on every genuine package.

SIEGE OF LUCKNOW.

Death of Old Survivor.

There died in London last month a lady who had not only attained a great age, but who early days were passed among events which at the time she occurred deeply stirred the heart of the nation.

Mrs. Lincoln, widow of the late Frederick Lincoln, sometime District Judge of Sitapur, Oudh, was in her 87th year, and when the Mutiny broke out in India in May, 1855, she and her husband were stationed in Lucknow.
When Sir Henry Lawrence decided to stand a siege within the grounds of the Residency, Mr.
and Mrs. Lincoln, with two young children occupied quarters at first in the upper storey of the Judicial Commissioner's office, but, later, as those were found to be too much exposed, they were moved to others, and in Lucknow Mrs. Lincoln remained during the early stage and until the final evacuation. Mr. Lincoln was for some considerable time one of the garrison of a post with some soldiers of the 32nd and the late Mr. Capper of the "Bengal Civil Service," the father of Major-General "Tommy" Capper, who was killed in the war
commanding the 7th Division and of Major-General Sir John Capper. It was Mr. Lincoln who helped Corporal William Oxenham, of the 32nd, to extricate Mr.
Capper when a round shot fired
by the rebels had buried him beneath the ruins of the por-tico they were defending. Oxenham received the Victoria Cross for

EMPIRE EXHIBITION.

SIR ROBERT HO TUNG'S GENEROSITY.

The Exhibition Committee of the Hongkong Chinese General Chamber of Commerce held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which it was announced that Sir Robert Ho Tung, one of the Associate Commissioners for the Hongkong Section, had generously undertaken to contribute $15,000 to the fund raised to guarantee against possible losses incurred by local exhibitors.

It will be remembered that the arrangements made by the Government in connection with the Empire Exhibition included the allocation of a considerable sum of money to guarantee Chinese exhibitors against losses. The allocation was made on condition that the Chinese Chamber of Commerce raised $50,000 for the same purpose.

Mr. Li Po-kwai, Chairman of the Chamber, presided at yesterday's meeting. He briefly explained the purpose of the meeting, after which he called upon the Hon. Mr. H. K. Kotevali to announce Sir Robert's undertaking.

The Hon. Mr. Kotevali said: I remember that at a meeting of this Committee held on the 23rd August last, it was announced that about forty odd persons had signified their willingness to guarantee $500 each, leaving over $25,000 to be yet guaranteed for. Sir Robert Ho Tung, who was present at the meeting, informed me that he desired to guarantee the remaining sum, but I advised him to desist for the time being, as I was of the opinion that more men should, and would, if given more time, take a share of the responsibility. Sir Robert accordingly withheld the announcement, and gave me authority to make it at such time as I might consider opportune. Now $35,000 has been guaranteed for by seventy men, leaving $15,000. On behalf of Sir Robert Ho Tung I have much pleasure in announcing that he will guarantee this sum in addition to the $500 he originally took up (Applause). This is another act of public spiritedness and generosity of his which I am sure the community will not easily forget. (Applause).

Poor Demand for Expensive Goods.

Before the meeting broke up the Chairman asked if any one present had received any letters from their representatives at the Exhibition as to how the Hongkong Section had fared.

In the informal chat that followed it was revealed that though there had been a rather brisk demand for small articles of bric-a-brac, the demand for the more expensive kind-of-goods, such as porcelain ware, was far from satisfactory. Visitors to the Exhibition, it was stated, appeared to have paid but scant attention to Kwong-porechina, despite the fact that this province was as famed for such ware as Sheffield was for steel. One gentleman present stated that certain London silversmiths objected to the alleged foisting upon purchasers of silver-ware sent from Hongkong, which they believed were made elsewhere. Trouble broke out, but eventually the objection was waived on an explanation being made by the Commissioner of the Hongkong Section. It appeared that the London exhibitors were struck by the similarity of the patterns and designs of their goods to those from Hongkong, expecting apparently to find Chinese workmanship peculiar and entirely different from theirs.

It was further stated that the Chinese exhibitors were not satisfied with the accommodation afforded them and had actually moved out from the wooden buildings specially put up for their benefit for fear of fire. One gentleman said he had received a letter, the author of which described the wooden huts as stables.

MISSIONARIES IN REPUTE.

That official respect for missionaries has increased and is increasing was the burden of the Archbishop of Canterbury's speech at the annual meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. In 1900, at their bi-centenary gathering, Lord Salisbury said, "I must not conceal from you that at the Foreign Office missionaries are not popular. Last year a conference of leading men was held at the Colonial Office to consider the question of education in tropical Africa. They declared that 99 per cent. of the education given to native-born Africans was provided by the missionaries and they decided that the only way of improving the education of these peoples was through and by the help of the missionaries."

RUBBER AND SCHOOLS.

SINGAPORE COUNCIL PRESSED BY MEMBERS.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Singapore, June 30.

At a meeting of the Straits Council the Government was strongly pressed by a Chinese member for an explanation of the serious deficiencies in the application of the rubber restriction, making special reference to the alarming extent to which smuggling was carried on, and requesting a revision of the minimum duty. The Colonial Secretary said that the matter would be fully considered and a report would be issued.

The new Malay member asked his first questions requesting better provision of English education for the Malays. The Government replied that the educational department was already considering a scheme.

SEQUEL TO COLLISION.

GARAGE BUS COMPANY SUED.

A case came before Mr. Justice Dyer Ball at the Summary Court yesterday in which the Chung Mei Garage, of 2 Queen's Road Central, claimed damages from the Chun Hing Motor Bus Company of Shanghai Street. The action arose out of a collision which occurred on the Castle Peak Road in March last when a bus belonging to the defendant company collided with a car on a trip round the New Territories.

The claim was for $500 damage to the car. The driver of the motor bus concerned was Li Kain, who was also concerned in another collision in the New Territories in which several people were killed. He was charged with manslaughter and recently sentenced to three years imprisonment.

Mr. C. H. Lyson appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. Campbell Prosser for the defendants.

A good deal of the evidence had been taken on affidavits before the Registrar, Mr. H. A. Nibbet. This was to the effect that the car was passing along the Castle Peak Road when the bus No. 1312 came up from behind and struck it on the off front wheel, breaking the axle and forcing it against the rocky wall which there borders the road. Further evidence was called at yesterday's hearing, and His Honour reserved judgment.

RAY TO RENEW LIFE.

Dr. Pais, a noted scientist of Rome, claims to have discovered a new method of rejuvenation. He declares that he has proved that X rays and radium not only stimulate living cells, but may cause a reverse development from old age to youth. Habits peculiar to young animals were induced in older specimens by Dr. Pais after lengthy experiments with prolonged weak radiations. If Dr. Pais experiments are confirmed it is stated that it will be possible to rejuvenate men and women without resort to surgical operations.

NEW GATES AT CAMBRIDGE.

A new set of wrought-iron gates, closing the back entrance of King's College, Cambridge, was dedicated when Sir Charles Walston, Litt.D., the donor, formally presented them to the Provost, Sir Walter Durnford, who received them on behalf of the college. In making the presentation, Sir Charles Walston said that the gates were a gift to the college from himself and Lady Walston.

Our Portrait is of Mr. E. F. WHEELER, of 22, Regent Street, Dalby, Doncaster, England, who writes:-

"About two years ago I had a nasty wound break out in my big toe. I had it attended to for about three months, but during that time it had spread to all the toes, with the result that I had to undergo an operation, but with no avail. Then, after another operation, as it did not get any better, I thought I would give you 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a trial. After taking the first three bottles I could walk better, and now after having nine bottles the wound has quite healed, and I am pleased to say I have not seen any sign of it breaking out since."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Eczema, Bells, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, Blood poisons, flatulence and indigestion, can get temporary relief, be sure of complete and lasting relief, by using 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' thoroughly. It is the most powerful medicine ever known, and cures all the most stubborn cases of such troubles. 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' quickly attacks, overcomes, and cures the impurities that it is why so many remarkable recoveries have been effected. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

FLYING ACCIDENTS IN CZECH ARMY.

An unfortunate series of flying accidents which has broken out in the Czech Military Flying School at Eger recently gave rise to the widest speculations. No fewer than five airmen were killed at the school in the course of a few weeks. The outbreak is all the more strange as the school, and indeed the whole Czech Flying Corps, has a very good record as far as accidents go. Among the more sober reasons brought forward to explain the sequence of disasters are the inferior quality of the petrol supplied to the aerodrome, the obsolete nature of the machines used, and the recklessness of the pilots.

BOVO-LACTIN

The Key of Life

In the treatment of gastric and intestinal disorders.

THE chief aim in the treatment of these conditions is to throw as little strain as possible on the digestive organs and at the same time maintain the patient's strength and increase the powers of resistance. On account of its concentration, high protein content, and ease of assimilation INVALID BOVO-LACTIN meets these indications admirably.

In cases of obstinate vomiting it is retained when all else fails.

In the prostration during and following attacks of diarrhoea it acts like a charm.

It is invaluable in the after treatment of cases of gastritis and enteritis due to the ingestion of unsuitable foods.

Liquid Milk Always a Problem

MILK is a sensitive product; perhaps the most sensitive of all.

In its liquid state it is subject to contamination from the time of milking, and bacteria always propagate in liquid milk at an unbelievable rate when not kept under ideal conditions. During transportation, on the delivery route, at the doorstep, in the kitchen and even the ice-box, milk "ages" rapidly as the bacteria grow. To age is to lose freshness and to lose its health sustaining qualities.

Boiled milk is spoiled milk so far as taste is concerned. Yet many housewives boil it to kill bacteria and make it safe.

Milk is the drink of all, but is absolutely the mainstay for children. It is their natural food. But the choice between boiled milk with its freshness gone and unboiled milk with its potential danger is a hard one to make.

ALLIED CONTROL IN GERMANY.

Paris, June 30.

The forecast of the German reply to the Ambassador's note on the subject of Inter-Allied military control accepts the resumption provided if deferred for a month; secondly that the control commission shall resume its mission by the inspection of factories; thirdly that the commission investigations shall be limited to seeing that laws are promulgated prohibiting dealing in war material and carrying out its destruction, mobilisation plans, and non-existence of armed forces contrary to the Versailles Treaty.

The first stipulation, it is stated, is to enable the preparation of German public opinion, but it is believed in Paris that it is merely to create a postponement until the results of the London Conference become known. The note disregards the Ambassador's additional claim that the commission shall make an inventory of German armaments, which if it turned out reassuring would result in the limitation of allied attention to the supervision and use of police and disposal of existing war material.—Reuter.

Paris, June 30.

Germany's reply concerning the resumption of military control has arrived in Paris. It claims a month's delay and makes three important reservations.—Reuter.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

New York, June 30.

The Democratic Convention to-day begins balloting for the presidential nomination. Governor Smith and Mr. McAdoo are still the leading champions. Senator Ralston and ex-Ambassador Davis continue on the trail, awaiting a possible deadlock that would swing the convention in their direction. Political experts predict a long and fierce battle. Sixteen candidates are submitted for nomination, but the delegates are not confined to voting for them. They may vote for anybody they consider deserving.—Reuter's American Service.

CANADIAN POSTAL STRIKE ENDS.

Toronto, June 30.

The Canadian postal strike, which began on the 21st has ended, the strikers unanimously voting in favour of resuming work after the Minister of Labour, Mr. Murdock, had promising the committee of the Dominion House of Commons to investigate their grievances.—Reuter's American Service.

BASEBALL.

U. S. S. SACRAMENTO v
FILIPINO CLUB.

An interesting baseball game was played at Happy Valley last evening between teams representing the U. S. S. Sacramento, and the Filipino Club. The sailors had a strong team out. Seven innings were played and the Sacramento won by nine runs to nil. The Filipinos put up a very plucky fight, but found the Sacramento men very fast on the bases.

Japanese v. Filipinos.

On Sunday afternoon the Filipino Club played their first game in the League, their previous fixtures having been interfered with by inclement weather. The Japanese with the advantage of previous matches were all over the Filipinos who nevertheless put up a gallant fight, inasmuch that they had the distinction of scoring a home run in the sixth innings from a hit by

CROWN LAND SALE.

At the Hongkong Volunteer Headquarters yesterday afternoon two lots of Crown land were sold by auction.

The first sale involved 20,000 square feet of land at Broadwood Road, the purchasers being the Dominican Mission in the Far East. It was knocked down at the upset price, viz $9,470. The second lot, with an area of 15,700 square feet, was also sold at the upset price, Mr. Leung Wai-man, the purchaser, paying $785. This lot is at Repulse Bay.

Crux to the centre field. This it is understood, is only the second occasion this season that the mighty deed has been accomplished.

As usual the Japanese took every advantage to pile up a score by smart stealing tactics and were successful to the point of winning by 8-2.

WOMAN'S CALLING.

Her Place as Home-Maker.

Mrs. Wintringham, M.P., in her presidential address recently, at the annual conference of the Association of Teachers of Domestic Subjects, held at Grosvenor Hall, said that in the tribal ages woman, as a member of the tribe, had no domestic encumbrances, so that the domestic side of her was not needed.

The Victorian Age was an age of bondage, which began to terminate when women were allowed to express themselves as individuals and it was not taken for granted that every woman was necessarily born a cook any more than every man was born a cricketer. Unfortunately, along with that freedom went the idea that it was a little unfashionable to know anything about house work—to sew, cook, or look after the home—and that the right thing for women to do was to go into the world and become man-like. "I do not agree with that," added Mrs. Wintringham, amidst applause.

"The greatest calling for a woman," she said, was to be a home-maker and to make the best use of her home. Twenty years ago, when cookery was introduced into a school with which she was associated, one child told the teacher that she was not to learn to cook because her mother kept a servant. (Laughter) Thank goodness, that day was gone and they now recognised that the foundation of the national life was the home.

In a paper on "Fatigue and How to Avoid It," Sir Robert

Armstrong Jones said that sleep was an absolute necessity. Two hours sleep before midnight ensured the drop into deep slumber which was missed if sleep were delayed. One of the great drawbacks for which civilisation was responsible was lack of proper exercise. Modern man was whirled to his job in tubes, raised to his office in lifts, and taken home in a motor or bus, being robbed of his walk and exercise.

Of mental diversions to prevent or relieve fatigue, Sir Robert commended the habit of reading, which preserved the strength and efficiency of the mind and was the most soothing remedy for the mentally tired. The influence of music as a mental relaxation and as an antidote to fatigue was well known.
